

Kindred Spirits Theatre Company Limited Code of Conduct

1. As part of the Kindred Spirits family, everyone should feel safe, welcome and valued.
2. Everyone should feel respected, listened to, and treated fairly.
3. We will include everyone and won't leave anyone out.
4. We will always be kind, encouraging and supportive.
5. We do not tolerate use of bad language.
6. We do not tolerate fighting or bullying of any kind.
7. We discourage the use of mobile phones during our sessions and do not allow the taking of photographs or videos other than that taken by staff members for promotional purposes.
8. We expect everyone to be polite to staff and fellow students.
9. We will respect the building that we are rehearsing in and will tidy up after ourselves.
10. If you are worried, please talk to us and help us to keep you safe.

To Parents and Carers, please be supportive of all of the children at Kindred Spirits. Please do not encourage unhealthy competition amongst the children – we want them to have fun learning and performing together and do not want them to view each other as competition. If you have any questions or concerns, please speak to us – help us to do the best that we can for your child. We will always encourage your child to do their best and will support them to as they build their skills and confidence. Thank you for your co-operation and support.
